Winter 2014

Urgent!

We are very much in need of canned adult and kitten food. With so many cats to feed here at the Hillside, your donations will be greatly appreciated.

You can bring your items to the Hillside SPCA during regular business hours. Driving directions are available on our website at www.hillsidespca.com.

Thank you!

A wish fulfilled

In our last newsletter, we told you of Leona and her wish before her cancer surgery that Ava, her beloved best friend at Hillside, whom she has walked for over two years, taken for car rides, trips to Burger King and much more, would get a loving home.

Leona's wish has come true and it was a glorious moment! Just four days before Leona's surgery, a marvelous family that had adopted several of our dogs before visited and fell in love with Ava!

We were ecstatic but remained a bit guarded until we knew it would all work out — and it has! Jeff Philips and his wonderful, loving family made a miracle happen for all of us!

Leona's surgery went well although she still has several months of chemo ahead of her. Given her drive and determination, we believe she'll be back walking special dogs and saving lives again.

Thank you for all your support, prayers, and love that made this special wish come true!

List with a twist

We are very happy and grateful when visitors bring food, treats, supplies and other items from our "wish list" that help keep our residents clean, comfortable and well fed.

You always make the Christmas holidays very exciting for all of us!

This holiday season, we wish for everything on this different kind of list with all our hearts:

- ◆ More shelter volunteers
- ◆ One inch or less snow storms this winter
- ◆ No ice storms!!
- ◆ A dramatic decrease in the number of unwanted kittens and puppies born in 2015
- ◆ Owners who will all spay and neuter their pets
- ◆ A comfortable, happy, safe, and loving life for all cats and dogs of the world
- A happy and healthy 2015 for all of you

The true spirit

Joe, myself and our buddies would like to wish you a Christmas and Holiday season filled with all the joy and love you have given us this year — a year which was truly one of our most difficult ever due to both the tremendously high number of cruelty cases we cared for and as a record year for the number of animals coming in to us.

Cases needing our help ranged from starvation to beatings to tumors to broken bones and beyond. In addition, 95% of the incoming animals needed to be spayed and neutered.

It was completely overwhelming physically, financially, and emotionally. I have never seen my staff so exhausted, frustrated and devastated.

Without your loyal and tremendous support, we could not have survived and many lives would have been lost.

Your gifts to my Joe's Fund epitomize what the Christmas spirit is really about — loving and giving to so many in need and making miracles happen.

And you have done exactly that. Your generous and heart-warming support means so very much — it means the difference between life and death to abused, neglected, ill, and unwanted animals.

Joe & Dio

Joe's favorite holiday was Christmas and he got the best present he ever wanted for our pals because of you!

Close your eyes on Christmas Eve and dream of all the faces that are safe, healthy and loved. May your hearts and souls share in all the miracles you have created.

All paws salute to you and Joe!

Happy Holidays,

~Barbara, Joe and Buddies

Misguided pet owners

Honeybun, Krimpet, and Chocolate Chip are just three of 30 cats Hillside recently rescued from a disturbingly sad hoarding situation.

An alert from a local police department led cruelty officer Janine and Feline Manager Becky to what looked like a normal residence on the outside but was a real house of horror for the dozens of cats discovered inside.

Masks were needed to suppress the stench that greeted them as the front door was unlocked. It quickly became obvious the woman who lived there had lost control over her everyday living. There was trash and upheaval everywhere and sadly, the cats she at one time thought she was "helping" did not even have access to a single real litter box — so they used the entire house as one!

Many of the cats were petrified by the strangers in their midst and were difficult to catch. Stepping through wall to wall feces and fighting their way through clutter was a formidable task for our people, but they did manage to rescue 14 bewildered kitties that first day, ranging from eight weeks to several years old. Seven more were rescued the next day.

Over the course of the next few weeks, Becky made multiple trips each and every day; wading through all the debris, setting and checking traps. She was on a mission and it paid off. The last of the 30 cats were finally removed from their unhealthy environment.

But rescuing them was just the beginning. They needed to be evaluated and cleaned up. Many have only one functioning eye due to untreated eye infections which resulted in partial or total blindness. There are several kitties we hope will retain at least some of their vision as we aggressively treat them. Finally, all are now safe, clean and happily adjusting to what we hope is temporary life at Hillside.

They are all so beautiful and handsome; many of them being black, or black and white long haired beauties; others are tabbies (striped), orange, or gray. What a great Christmas gift it would be for Krimpet, Honeybun, and Chocolate Chip (as well as for all the other cats and for those of us who love them and worked hard to make them whole again) to experience a normal cat's life in a safe, healthy, loving, forever home.

Sadly, hoarding of animals is more common than one might think. We've dealt with at least three other situations since June resulting in the rescue of over 80 cats and dogs. People who hoard think they are "saving" the animals when in essence they are subjecting them to a life of abuse and almost always fail to have them spayed and neutered or provide veterinary care when needed.

The numbers of their charges multiply faster than they can handle which leads to situations that totally overwhelm them. Intervention is the only thing that puts a halt to hoarding.

The hoarder of these cats was relocated to a place that is safer for her health. It is always a sad scenario for all.

Thank goodness Hillside SPCA can come to the rescue of hoarded cats and dogs in our area. You, our loyal supporters, make it possible for us to do this. Without you, we could not. We thank you with all our hearts! And so do the animals that are rescued!

Farewell to our beloved Teak

It is with a very heavy heart I share with you the heartbreaking news that we lost our Teak, beloved mascot for my Joe's Fund, on September 27th at 15 years of age.

Everyone who has attended any of our events loved and knew Teak, a constant presence and tireless fundraiser at every event we had for my Joe's Fund for so many years.

He was rescued by Diane Drogalis after he was hit by a car and suffered permanent damage to his leg. But that didn't stop Teak. It was like he knew he got his second chance at life and wanted his Hillside buddies to get the same.

He absolutely loved going to all our events. When Diane started getting ready to attend a fundraiser, he knew immediately. He would wear his jacket saying "Help our Hillside Buddies" with great pride.

Teak had suffered much abuse from his former owner but survived to become a registered therapy dog and to win many awards thanks to Diane's love and guidance and Teak's drive to take full advantage of the second chance at life he found.

Many people would walk by our stand and look at Teak's beautiful pleading eyes and put money in his jacket. No one could turn away from Teak.

In the last few years he struggled every day with his hind legs, slowly losing his mobility due to the lingering effects of his injuries and old age.

Diane went the complete distance for him, incurring expensive vet bills to keep him comfortable and happy, even if it meant riding in a wagon or on a stretcher until the end because her love for him and their bond with each other — and with Hillside — went so deep.

Teak is gone physically but not spiritually. He is with us every day in Heaven looking over all his Hillside buddies, and after serving so many years, probably with many friends he saved. And of course, he is with my Joe, who welcomed him with open arms.

When people come to our events, they look for Teak. He has left his mark on so many, and I know he is in Hillside Heaven watching over us. Gone, but never, ever, forgotten.

~ Barbara Umlauf, Manager

Fluff came to us along with her brother Marshmallow. Born and raised together, they were very close, protected and took care of each other, always enjoyed playing together, and often huddled together sleeping, comforted in the safety they found in being together. They most definitely loved each other very much!

A short time ago, Marshmallow found his forever home and while we are very happy and thankful for the loving family that adopted him, it left his little sister Fluff lost and alone. Since he has been gone we have noticed a dramatic change in Fluff.

Lonely and sad, not a day goes by that she isn't looking around the shelter for her brother, or sitting waiting for him to come and play with her. After much coaxing, Fluff will come out only to sit by the fence crying for the attention of one of the shelter workers — she so misses her brother...

Fluff is normally a very energetic, happy girl, playing with toys and cuddling. She would be an excellent companion for someone who is lonely too. Without her brother she would prefer to be the only animal in the home, however she has enough love to share for a whole family of special people.

We are determined to find Fluff a loving home just like the one her brother has found. We know someone is out there who could help our Fluff heal her broken heart. We hope that her special person or family arrives soon to give our Fluff the loving home she longs for and most certainly deserves!
